Bad Ironclad!
(Nathan Hale's
Hazardous Tales
#2)

With the honesty of a close friend, the hilarity of a late-night comic, and the humility of a mom up to her eyeballs in diapers
and dishes,
Courtney Ellis
invites us on a journey to draw closer God amid the joyful, mundane, exhausting days of
young parenthood.
Probing ancient Christian practices for renewal, Almost Holy Mama

chronicles one mom's quest to discover an answer to her most pressing question:
Can God use the challenges of parenthood to grow your character? You
long to spend time with God and catch your spiritual breath, but you find yourself honestly wondering how and when? Ellis gets it.
It's hard to carve out space for a quiet moment with God, let alone a quiet time! Instead of adding more
tasks to your plate, Almost Holy Mama
will help you integrate your spiritual practices into your daily life.
From studying Scripture in the shower to listening in prayer at the foot of Laundry
Mountain, Ellis

finds that meeting God in sacred disciplines can breathe new life into one of life's most joy-filled and trying seasons. Alex Hawke is sailing into trouble when an around-the-world journey
becomes a fight against terror in the latest exciting adventure from
New York Times
bestselling novelist Ted Bell. After
saving the kidnapped heir to the British throne, gentleman spy and MI6 legend Alex Hawke is due for some downtime.
He's got a new custom built sailing yacht and a goal: to get closer to his son Alexi during an epic cruise across the seven seas. But fate and the chief of MI6, Lord David

Trulove, have other plans. There's an unholy alliance of nations who are plotting to attack Western
democracies. The wily intelligence leader plans to use Hawke to drive a knife into the heart of this conspiracy.
From an island base off Cuba to a secret jungle lair deep in the Amazon, on the land and the seas,
the master spy and his crew of incorrigibles are in for the fight of their lives—the fight for freedom. Centaine de Thiry, a young Frenchwoman
seeking a new life for herself and her unborn child, after her lover, a British flying ace, is killed
during World War I,
sets out for her
lover's childhood
home in South

As Sean finds himself on the brink of losing everything in the ongoing war, he finds something he has never had before - love - with the strong-willed, self-assured and beautiful Ruth Friedman. But this love forms a weakness in him, a weakness Garrick is determined to manipulate to deliver the revenge he desperately seeks. With the world against him, Sean must fight for everything he has built. But when your enemy is your own family there are some wars in which there are no victors . . . Now Ash wants to take her family home, too. She disguises herself as a nurse, determined to learn his weaknesses. But the closer she comes to Ash, the greater the pull of his reckless charm. 'Stands in comparison with the best of Cornwell' Yorkshire Post Once seen in the heat of battle, Captain Stryker is never forgotten. A hardened veteran of the wars in the Low Countries, he has come home to England to seek revenge on the man who left him for dead and scarred him for life. Stryker is driven by loyalty rather than conviction to serve King Charles's cause. He has no truck with aristocracy, preferring the company of a handful of trusted men, including sometime actor Lancelot Forrester and his foul-mouthed sergeant, Skellen. But when the existence of a dangerous spy at the heart of the Royalist establishment is discovered, it is Stryker whom Prince Rupert chooses to capture the man before he realises the game is up. Lightly armed and with only a handful of men, Stryker must journey across a country riven by bitterness and beset by marauding bands of soldiers in a race against time. But unbeknown to Stryker, someone else is also closing in on his quarry, someone whom Stryker has sworn made him who he is: The Courtney series. After centuries of barely visible incremental development, postgraduate education has experienced twenty years of considerable turbulence as governments recognise its latent power, some responding more quickly than others and each in different ways. This anthology, drawing on research, deep reflection and praxis, illustrates the current situation in a range of geographical environments that result from such interventions, or lack of them, providing readers both with information about neglected contexts, challenges and concerns and with stimulating ideas about how they might be managed more effectively. Africa. When fate decrees that they must all leave England forever, they set sail for the dark, unexplored continent, seduced by the allure and mystery of this new, magnificent, but savage land. All will have a crucial part to play in shaping the Courtneys' destiny, as the family vies for a prize beyond any of their dreams. In a story of anger and passion, peace and war, Wilbur Smith evinces himself at the height of his storytelling powers. Set at the dawn of eighteenth-century England, with the Courtneys riding wind-tossed seas toward Arabia and Africa, Monsoon is an exhilarating adventure pitting brother against brother, man against sea, and good against evil. An epic story of courage, betrayal and undying love that takes the reader to the very heart of a world at war. Oslo, New Year's Eve. The annual firework celebration is rocked by an explosion, and the city is put on terrorist alert. Police officer Alexander Blix and blogger Emma Ramm are on the scene, and when a severely injured survivor is pulled from the icy harbour, she is identified as the mother of two-year-old Patricia Smeplass, who was kidnapped on her way home from kindergarten ten years earlier ... and never found. Blix and Ramm join forces to investigate the unsolved case, as public interest heightens, the terror threat is raised, and it becomes clear that Patricia's disappearance is not all that it seems...

_ Praise for the Blix & Ramm series: 'Everything about this crime novel sings, the relationship between Blix and Emma, which is complex, but also the relationship between Blix and Fosse and Kovic. The past bleeds into the present and the clever melding of the strands of the story and the slow reveal of details that propel the story is masterly. This tale often surprises or shifts in subtle ways that are pleasing and avoid cliché. Some people are like monarch butterflies—solitary by nature, on a passionate search for somewhere. Critically acclaimed songwriter Courtney Marie Andrews presents her first poetry collection. This poetry collection reads like a transformation, me, the narrator, being the figurative Old Monarch.

Documenting this journey, the book is separated into three sections,

"Sonoran Milkweed,"

"Longing In Flight,"

and "Eucalyptus Tree (My Arrival to Rest)." In the first stage of my journey, I explore my childhood in Arizona, and the naive assumptions of youth. At this stage in my journey, I am

impressionable,

seeing the world

with all its nuances for the first time.

Through the landscape of the

Sonoran Desert, I

explore some dark

family dynamics

and what a child sees. Several characters turn up in the early poems including my cowboy grandpa,

and the single mother who raised

me, despite many forthcomings. The early poems also explore my desire to see a brighter

world of possibility

beyond the dusty

desert island, and see humans more

clearly within the confounds of discovery. In the second stage, I have left home. I am falling in love for the first time, as I become a young woman. Finally, the last stage is the old monarch's arrival to the garden. There are a lot of metaphysical and philosophical

poems in this section. I arrive at the figurative garden, and I finally understand the journey at the edge of my life. There are a lot of poems

in the context of a garden here,

accepting mortality

and the ever-

changing world.

These are meant to be wise old woman

poems. 'That time is upon us. I can feel it coming. That evil

barbarian will not be satisfied until he has engulfed the whole world in war and death. I fear for us all.' In a triumphant return to his much-loved

Courtney series,

Wilbur Smith

introduces us to the bravest new member of the famed family,

Saffron Courtney.

The Malabar coast

is full of dangers:

greedy tradesmen,

fearless pirates,

and men full of vengeance. But for a Courtney, the greatest danger might just be his own family... Posted to the hostile territory of Dartmoor, Captain Innocent Stryker and his men are attacked by an elite cavalry unit commanded by the formidable Colonel Gabriel Wild and suffer heavy losses. Stryker has already clashed once with Wild, and the Roundhead has sworn to seek his revenge. After the attack, Stryker is faced with the annihilation of his company as he is hounded across the moor, eventually seeking shelter on an isolated tor populated by an enigmatic former priest who harbours no love for the King's cause. Colonel Wild is assisted in his revenge by Osmyn Hogg, Parliamentarian Witchfinder, who shares his own deadly history with Stryker. To save his honour and his life, Stryker must lead his men to glory from the protection of the lonely granite-topped hill. Into this atmosphere of intrigue and danger comes the beautiful but mysterious Cecily Cade. Stryker comes to her aid, unaware that she carries with her special knowledge that may prove the key to Royalist victory. Menace emanated from them as fiercely as the heat from the sun. Night and day, the drums never stopped, a constant reminder of the mortal threat that hung over them. She could hear them booming across the waters, like the heartbeat of the monster. An unimaginable enemy will bring them together . . . In the burning heat of the Sudanese sun, the city of Khartoum is under siege from the fearsome forces of the Mahdi, the charismatic leader of those who tire of the brutal Egyptian government. In Khartoum, along with thousands of innocent citizens, are trapped the fanatical General Charles Gordon, intrepid soldier Penrod Ballantyne of the 10th Hussars, English trader Ryder

Courtney and the British consul and his three beautiful daughters. As rescue becomes increasingly unlikely, this group of Queen Victoria's loyal citizens must unite to prepare themselves against a nightmarish enemy, and for the savage battle to survive that must surely follow . . .

The Courtneys meet the Ballantynes in a sweeping adventure. The deck bucked under her feet and she was hurtled backwards on to the bunk again, and the blast of a massive explosion ripped through the ship. 'What is happening?' she screamed. Love in a time of war. Hope in a time of danger. One of the greatest fighter pilots of the Great War, Michael Courtney is saved by the French noblewoman Centaine de Thiry when he crashes near her home. Soon after, Centaine finds herself alone and carrying Michael's child, and must travel across the ocean to join his family in South Africa. But no journey is ever simple, and a pregnant Centaine finds herself shipwrecked in shark-infested waters off Africa's notorious Skeleton Coast, a deadly swim away from the sun-bleached desert that will see her defenceless and alone. When hope arrives, she has no way of knowing if she will be saved -- or left in greater danger than ever before... A Courtney Series adventure - Book 1 in The Burning Shore sequence
