benchmarked qualification and is equivalent to Cambridge AS level. The IEA produces consistent, reliable results. In the Grade 12 National Senior Certificate, the average pass rate is between 97% and 98% for those entering degree study, between 78% and 80% for those entering diploma or certificate study. A study carried out at the University of Cape Town in 2008 found that the National Senior Certificate (NSC) is a high school diploma and is the school leaving certificate in South Africa. This certificate is commonly known as the matriculation matric certificate. As of Grade 12, the matriculation grade is the National Senior Certificate or NSC. The current matriculation matric certificate with Grade 12 as the matriculation grade is the NSC, previously known as the Further Education and Training Certificate (FETC). The FETC replaced the Senior Certificate effectively in 2008, having been phased in with Grade 10 in 2006.
